JUNIOR AQUATIC WATER SAFETY PROGRAM

This program helps teens develop teaching and leadership skills by volunteering at the Dublin Swim Center and assisting with the teaching swim lessons. Volunteers will have the opportunity to compete in the Northern California Junior Lifeguard Games. The JAWS, Junior Aquatic Water Safety, program is open to teens entering the 7th grade or higher who have completed the JAWS Training Course. For more information call 556-4590.

WATER SAFETY INSTRUCTOR CLASS

A comprehensive course designed to provide you with the knowledge necessary to teach American Red Cross swimming and water safety classes. Students will learn to teach aquatic skills and to address issues common in the teaching environment. Individuals successfully completing this course will be qualified to issue certificates in swimming and water safety. This course includes Fundamentals of Instructor Training (FIT). A pre-course written test and skills test will be given the first class session. Must attend all classes. Instructor: Dublin Swim Center Staff.

INSIDE DUBLIN

(formerly City of Dublin 101)

If you have ever wondered how the City provides municipal services or if you are interested in learning more about your community, applications are now being accepted to be part of INSIDE DUBLIN (formerly the City of Dublin 101). The goal of INSIDE DUBLIN, which is sponsored by the City of Dublin, is to inform the program's participants about the issues facing the community, and to encourage community involvement at all levels. The program will include presentations on topics such as public safety, local government, and community services.

INSIDE DUBLIN is a seven week program (Thursday evenings from 7:00 PM to 9:30 PM) beginning with a bus tour of the City of Dublin on September 29, 2012 (first class October 4, 2012). Class size will be limited to the first 20 candidates (candidates must live or work in Dublin), so sign up now. For an application, please contact Chris Foss, Assistant City Manager, at (925) 833-6650, or fill out an application on the City's website at www.dublin.ca.gov.
